Business Day in Madison 2011

When: Wednesday, February 23, 2011, 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Where: Monona Terrace Convention & Community Center, Madison
Local chambers of commerce across Wisconsin are partnering with 18 other statewide organizations to bring Wisconsin's premier legislative event to Madison. Business leaders from all over Wisconsin will come together to meet with policymakers and discuss important issues facing our state.

The opening address will be delivered by Dr. Larry Sabato, a highly respected commentator on the United States Congress, and Washington in general. He has proposed a series of basic reforms to focus Congress and the Presidency on policymaking by getting elected officials away from perpetual campaigning that currently drives fiscal policy and lawmaking in Washington, D.C.

The keynote address will be given by Stuart Varney, a veteran business journalist who serves as a business contributor and substitute host for FOX News Channel's "Your World with Neil Cavuto." Varney will share his most pivotal reminder: America, and only America, has the flexibility and confidence to lead the world out of the financial crisis and come out stronger than ever.

Other speakers invited will be Governor Scott Walker, Congressman Paul Ryan, and New Jersey Governor Chris Christie.

To register or for more information go online to www.businessdayinmadison.com If you are interested in car pooling to the event, please contact Thom Ciske by emailing to tciske@foxcitieschamber.com
